

KICK-START: TURNING IDEAS INTO ACTION

A practical workshop and launch of the CMHDARN Research Seeding Grants

27 APRIL 2017 – 9:30AM – 4:30PM

BUILDING 6, LEVEL 6, ROOM 115, UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY SYDNEY

PROGRAM

9.00 AM	REGISTRATION
9.30 am	Welcome Jenna Bateman, CEO, Mental Health Coordinating Council Acknowledgement of Country Angela Phillips, Lecturer and ATSI Advisor, Faculty of Health, UTS
9.40 am	Official Opening Distinguished Professor of Public Health, Elizabeth Sullivan, Assistant Vice Chancellor of Research, UTS
9.50 am	Launch of the Seeding Grants 2017-18 Commissioner John Feneley, NSW Mental Health Commission
10.05 am	Seeding Grants Presentations Sianne Hodge, Program Manager, Network of Alcohol & other Drug Agencies Dr Grenville Rose, Psychologist – representing Aftercare Suzanne Dean, Social Worker and Registered Nurse – representing Jarrah House
10.45–11.15 AM	MORNING TEA
11.15–12.00pm	SESSION 1 – Unpacking the Idea Dr Angela Dawson, Associate Professor of Public Health, UTS
12.00–1.00 PM	NETWORKING LUNCH
1.00–2.30 pm	SESSION 2 – Developing An Approach: How to undertake research Research Methodology: Selecting the best methods for the project Emeritus Professor Jane Stein-Parbury, Professor of Mental Health Nursing, UTS Cultivating Research Integrity: Involving consumers in a real and meaningful way Dr Katherine Gill, Chair, Consumer Led Research Network Service Provider Perspective: Managing challenges and set backs Mark Goodhew, Sydney Medically Supervised Injecting Centre Breakout Session
2.30–3.00 PM	AFTERNOON TEA
3.00–3.30 pm	SESSION 3 – Bringing it all together: Writing the proposal Dr Nicola Hancock, Senior Lecturer, Occupational Therapy, University of Sydney
3.30–4.00 pm	CREMS and CMHDARN Mentoring Program Dr Louise Mewton, Centre for Research Excellence in Mental Health and Substance Abuse
4.00–4.30 pm	Final Questions and Wrap Up Sianne Hodge, Program Manager, Network of Alcohol & other Drug Agencies